CN GIRLS GOLF PLACES SEVENTH AT STATE MEET
Sophomore Nathaly Munnicha shot a 78 on Sept. 29 for a two-round total of 158, leading the Columbus North girls golf team to a seventh-place finish in the IHSAA State Finals at Prairie View Golf Club.

Munnicha’s score landed her in 22nd place individually, leading the Columbus North girls golf team to a seventh-place finish in the IHSAA State Finals at Prairie View Golf Club.

MR. INTENSITY: Kevin Lin displays ferocity while remaining analytical while competing for the Columbus North boys’ tennis team. The senior – a two-time team most valuable player – carries a 12-5 record this season at No. 1 singles entering regional competition.

BULL DOGS’ QUINTESSENTIAL TEAM PLAYER
Columbus North senior thrives on court, excels in leadership role for boys’ tennis team

The Columbus North senior boys’ tennis player and the concept go hand-in-hand, according to Bull Dogs coach Kendal Hammel.

Lin has been the epitome of a quality player throughout his career, compiling a 58-31 record in varsity matches as four-year varsity regular. As a sophomore, Lin teamed with then-senior Ammar Khaled to go 21-3 and earn first-team all-state honors at No. 1 doubles. As a junior, Lin was 14-11 at No. 1 singles and an honorable mention all-state selection. As a senior, he is 12-5 while leading the Bull Dogs to regional competition.

“I am really proud of Kevin in how he has worked to get to the level he is at now,” Hammel said. “He constantly is trying to get better in his shot selection and mental game. As a team captain for two years, he has set the example of what it takes to be good.”

Lin, who hopes for a career in sports medicine or as an orthopedic surgeon, said he strives to bring proper focus and footwork to each match.

“I’m intense when I play,” said Lin, who is considering Indiana, Purdue, Columbia, Michigan and Duke as possible college choices. “I try to play 100 percent all the time and try not to be sloppy or lazy. A lot of it is about my feet. I try to get to the ball and stay properly balanced as much as I can.”

Another of Lin’s strengths is his tenacity.

“If I make a mistake, I am able to adjust,” he said, describing himself as analytical. “When others might get frustrated, I am able to stay calm and stay with my game.”

Hammel points to Lin as an example of the program’s high standards.

“On the court, he gives everything he can to try to win matches as well as push others to do what is expected from them,” the coach said. “It has been a pleasure to work with him.”

FOOTBALL: BULL DOGS AIM TO CLAIM 12TH CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP

With a 6-1 record and standing 3-0 in Conference Indiana, the Columbus North football team appears poised for a strong finish to an outstanding season. The Bull Dogs host Bloomington North on Friday for their Senior Night. They close the regular season on Oct. 12 at Terre Haute South. A pair of victories would give Columbus North the CI championship, which would be just the second CI crown and 12th league title in Columbus High/ Columbus North history. The Bull Dogs shared the CI prize in 2004, and they won or shared South Central Conference trophies in 1942, 1945, 1952, 1959, 1961, 1963, 1964, 1965, 1975 and 1988.

A bye week follows, and the Bull Dogs will open Class 6A Sectional 8 action on Oct. 26 against either Center Grove, Franklin Central or Jeffersonville. The sectional final will be Nov. 2, with the regional, semi-state and State Finals in ensuing weeks. The draw to determine sectional pairings will be held Sunday.

Through seven games, CN coach Tim Bless generally is pleased with how the Bull Dogs have played.

Senior Trenton Kelley and sophomore Blake Huffman have been standoutts on offense. Kelley has passed for 1,319 yards and 11 touchdowns despite missing one game because of injury. Senior Dylan England played well in that one game, throwing for 45 yards in a 41-36 victory at Southport. Kelley’s total includes a 358-yard passing effort in last week’s 52-35 victory at Bloomington South.

Senior Trenton Kelley and sophomore Blake Huffman have been standoutts on offense. Kelley has passed for 1,319 yards and 11 touchdowns despite missing one game because of injury. Senior Dylan England played well in that one game, throwing for 45 yards in a 41-36 victory at Southport. Kelley’s total includes a 358-yard passing effort in last week’s 52-35 victory at Bloomington South.

Collectively, the Bull Dogs have totaled 2,653 yards on offense – 1,279 yards and 19 touchdowns rushing as well as 1,374 yards and 11 TDs passing. In addition, junior Hunter Huser has added 127 yards and three rushing touchdowns on 45 attempts.

On the Loose: Blake Huffman (34) looks for running room in the Bull Dogs’ game against Terre Haute North. The sophomore ran for 207 yards and two touchdowns in a 42-10 victory.

It is a formula that the coach hopes he sees continue.

BOYS SOCCER: BULL DOGS LOOK TO PLAY WELL IN POSTSEASON CONTESTS

When it plays well, the Columbus North boys soccer team has had some very good moments. The 6-10-1 Bull Dogs hope to carry that kind of effort into the Jeffersonville Sectional, which they begin at 6 p.m. Monday by facing Jennings County (2-14-1).

A victory in that game would move CN into the sectional semifinal at 5 p.m. Wednesday against Floyd Central, which received a first-round bye. The sectional final is set for 7:30 p.m. Saturday with Seymour, Jeffersonville, New Albany and Columbus East vying in the other half of the bracket.

Seymour, 12-3-0 overall and 7-0 in the Hoosier Hills Conference, is the sectional favorite.

“When we play well, we are a good team and the kind of team that no one wants to play in the postseason,” CN coach Tom Pollert said. “Still, we need to play perfect to beat anybody. We aren’t taking anyone lightly. We’ve learned that lesson this year.”

The sectional winner will advance to the Seymour Regional on Oct. 13 against the winner of the Bloomington North Sectional. Winners from Castle and Center Grove will meet in the other regional semifinal. Seymour also will host a semi-state on Oct. 20, and the Class 3A State Finals will be either Oct. 26 or Oct. 27 at IUPUI’s Carroll Stadium.

Junior Graham Keele leads the Columbus North attack with 25 points on 12 goals and one assist. Junior Sotaro Kaneda has added eight points on two goals and four assists, while sophomore Kurt Nusterer has six points on two goals and two assists.

Senior Ernesto Perez has provided one goal and two assists, while senior Fraser Swan and junior Andrew Goble have one goal and one assist apiece.

Senior Zach Friend has provided two assists, while senior Fabio Navarro and junior Ben Malone each has produced one assist.

Senior Noah Kestler has a 1.75 goals against average with two shutouts in 1,138 minutes in goal. Friend, senior Edgar Garcia and sophomore Ben Larken have been key contributors to the defensive group in front of Kestler.

Recent highlights for the Bull Dogs include a 2-1 victory over Perry Meridian, a 2-0 shutout of Terre Haute North and a 4-1 triumph over Westfield. However, CN closed the regular season with consecutive setbacks to Bloomington North (1-0), Seymour (4-0) and Carmel (1-0).

The Bull Dogs look to finish the season on a good note.

Go Bull Dogs!

At Duke Energy, we celebrate perseverance and the pursuit of excellence in our community. And we salute everyone who’s taken to the field and given 110 percent.

In that same spirit, we wish the teams at CNHS a great 2018-2019 season.

A 10-4-0 through the regular season, the Columbus North girls soccer team is hopeful of making a good run in the postseason. A year ago, the Bull Dogs advanced all the way to the semi-state, and a repeat effort is not out of the question.

Freshman Jenna Lang leads the team with 36 points on 16 goals and four assists. Senior Tanner Johnson has added 28 points on 13 goals and two assists despite missing the past five games with a broken collarbone. Junior Caroline Hollenkamp has 13 points on five goals and three assists, while sophomore Lauryn Whitley has 13 points on four goals and five assists.

Freshman K.J. Ely has eight points on three goals and two assists, while senior Larah Henderson and freshman Claire Lyvers each has two goals. Senior Bailey Drum has one goal and two assists, senior Rose Sardina and sophomore Samantha Crossman each has two assists.

Junior Kaylyn Bates has a 1.00 goals against average with eight shutouts in 1,114 minutes in the net.

Columbus North received a first-round bye and will open sectional play against host Franklin at 7 p.m. Thursday in the semifinal round of the Franklin Sectional. Columbus East, Whiteland, Center Grove and Greenwood compete in the other half of the sectional, and the sectional final will be at 2 p.m. Saturday.

The Bull Dogs defeated Center Grove 1-0 early in the season but dropped a 4-3 decision to Columbus East. The Olympians may be considered the sectional favorite in that they also posted a 2-0 decision over the Trojans.

“We just need to be consistent in how we play,” CN coach Derek Stewart said, whose squad beat Bloomington North 1-0 and Franklin 7-0 in its final two regular-season games after dropping three of its previous four. “In spurts, we have played tremendous soccer. We just need to put full games together.”

The sectional champion will advance to the Bloomington South Regional on Oct. 13. The Franklin Sectional winner will face the winner from Terre Haute North, while winners from Evansville North and Floyd Central will meet in the other semifinal.

The semi-state will be Oct. 20 at either Seymour or Evansville. The Class 3A State Finals will be Oct. 26 or Oct. 27 at IUPUI's Carroll Stadium.

The Bull Dogs hope to be busy throughout the month.

CROSS COUNTRY: DOGS STRIVE FOR STRONG EFFORTS IN TOURY SERIES

With the regular season now complete and the state tournament series set to begin with the Brown County Sectional at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Eagle Park, both the Columbus North cross country teams believe they can have a strong postseason.

The boys enter the sectional after placing 10th of 21 teams in the varsity division last Saturday in the Nike Valley Twilight Meet at the LaVern Gibson Course in Terre Haute. Senior John Sluys paced the effort, placing 16th individually in 16:06.3. Others posting good times there were senior Sam Horak (16:35.9), senior Rishi Poludasu (16:44.3), sophomore Collin Pruitt (16:47.4), freshman Matt Newell (16:51.0), freshman Reese Kilbarger-Stumpff (17:10.7) and freshman Evan Carr (17:23.0).

“This is the same course we ran for Conference Indiana (two weeks earlier), and 32 of 33 boys ran at least 25 seconds faster than 14 days earlier,” CN coach Danny Fisher said. “This shows our training is beginning to pay off.

“We split our squad to give them a mental test before the tournament season and an opportunity to just focus on racing the course and learning it. … We have a goal of being in the top 10 in the state.”

The girls, meanwhile, finished seventh of 18 teams in their varsity race at the Nike Valley meet. Junior Olivia Morlok led the girls with a time of 18:59.4 for 17th place. Other efforts included sophomore Mackenzie Barnett in 19:50.8, sophomore Ariq Tong in 20:00.0, senior Sydney Geckler in 20:10.8, senior Emma Smith in 20:19.2, senior Abbey Landini in 20:40.7 and freshman Abby Jacobi in 20:56.3.

“We pulled in front of one of our semi-state rivals by beating Bloomington South,” girls coach Rick Sluder said, noting that many CN athletes posted season-best times. “This really gives us a springboard for the state tournament. With the sectional (looming), we seem to be rounding into our best form at the perfect time. The feeling is that we just can’t wait.”

A week earlier, the boys placed third in the highly competitive New Haven Classic and the girls were third in the Shelbyville Invitational. Sluys and Horak paced the boys at New Haven with respective times of 16:14.4 and 16:18.6, while Poludasu was clocked in 16:35.9, Newell in 16:52.6 and Pruitt in 16:59.0. Morlok, Barnett, Tong, Geckler and Landini were the girls’ fast five at Shelbyville. Their respective times were 18:52.3, 19:27.2, 19:47.7, 20:13.3 and 20:34.2.

At the Conference Indiana meet on Sept. 15, both squads placed third — the boys chasing Bloomington South and Bloomington North and the girls just behind Bloomington North and Bloomington South. Sluys (16:38.4) and Pruitt (17:25.0) were all-conference for the boys. Morlok (19:37.2), Barnett (20:10.0) and Geckler (20:39.2) were all-conference for the girls.

The regional is Oct. 13 and the semi-state is Oct. 20, both at Eagle Park. The IHSAA state meet is Oct. 27 back at the LaVern Gibson Course.

Sophomore Nathaly Munnicha earned all-state accolades, senior Alex Munnicha was named academic all-state and the Columbus North girls golf team posted its 20th top-10 team finish by placing seventh at the State Finals.

Those were among the highlights for the 2018 season, which also included championships in the Conference Indiana, Greensburg Sectional and Lapel Regional meets as well as an 11-0 mark in two- and three-school competitions.

Nathaly Munnicha paced the Bull Dogs with a 75.67 average in nine 18-hole rounds, and she was individual medalist in the Zionsville Invitational with a 69 and the Greensburg Sectional with a 75. Alex Munnicha averaged 79.22 in 18-hole rounds with a best of 71 in the Fuzzy Zoeller Invitational.

Junior Annie Anderson averaged 84.11 in 18-hole rounds, including claiming the individual medal in the CI meet with a 76. Freshman Ella Wilks and sophomore Yestika Nischol each averaged 89.44 for 18-hole rounds, Wilks with a best of 80 at the Zoeller Invitational and Nischol with a best of 81 at the Zoeller and CI events.

“At the sectional, CN captured its sixth consecutive title and 22nd in program history with a 322. Nathaly Munnicha shot a 75, Alex Munnicha and Anderson had 79s, Wilks posted an 86 and Nischol had a 90.”

At the regional, the Bull Dogs claimed the program’s seventh crown with a 333. Nathaly Munnicha carded a 76, Alex Munnicha a 79, Anderson and Nischol each had an 89, and Wilks posted a 91.

Columbus North was making its 26th appearance in the IHSAA girls golf State Finals. The Bull Dogs now have finished in the top 10 on 20 occasions – second once, third five times, fourth twice, fifth twice, sixth twice, seventh four times, eighth once and ninth three times. CN’s best finish was second in 1973. The Bull Dogs placed fifth in 2014, tied for seventh in 2015, placed third in 2016 and finished fourth last year.

GOOD FORM: Junior Annie Anderson (left photo) and senior Alex Munnicha follow through on respective shots in the Conference Indiana Tournament. Anderson claimed medalist honors in the event with a career-best 76. Munnicha was runner-up that day with a 77 and later was named academic all-state.

The State Finals is a goal for the Columbus North tennis team. Following a seventh consecutive sectional title, that objective is a mere three matches away.

“Overall I am pleased with how we are playing,” said Columbus North coach Kendal Hammel, whose squad takes an 11-3 mark into a regional semifinal match against Seymour at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday at Bloomington North. “We cannot take any team lightly, but we are the highest-ranked team in the regional and we hope to play well.”

Should CN beat Seymour, Bloomington South is the likely opponent in the regional final on Wednesday. The Bull Dogs defeated the Panthers 3-2 on Sept. 11, but it was a close match.

“We have changed our No. 3 singles position, which is where we lost last time and was a spot where I thought we should win,” Hammel said. “They have strong players at (Nos.) 1 and 2 singles, where we hope to compete well. Doubles is key. They have good teams, but I feel our tandems have stepped up to play well when expected.”

If Columbus North reaches the semi-state, Castle could be the opponent at noon Saturday in Jasper.

“(Castle is) a good team and we could compete well with them in all positions to possibly have an edge,” Hammel said. “However, that is to be seen and played.”

Senior Kevin Lin has posted a 12-5 record at No. 1 singles, while junior Bhavey Jain is 12-5 at No. 2 singles. Junior Eamon Ma is 6-1 since taking the No. 3 singles spot, while junior Adam Saad and freshman Nathan Lin are 14-3 at No. 1 doubles. Junior Joey Zhao and freshman Matthew Liu are 8-0 together since Zhao moved No. 2 doubles, and Liu is 13-3 with a variety partners at No. 2 doubles.

Should Columbus North advance to state, it would face the winner of the Center Grove 2 Semi-State at 3 p.m. Oct. 12 at Center Grove. A win there would move the Bull Dogs into the state semifinals at 10 a.m. Oct. 13 at North Central. The state championship match is at 2 p.m. Oct. 13 at North Central.

The individual State Finals is set for Oct. 19-20 at Park Tudor. That event is for No. 1 singles players and No. 1 doubles tandems that qualify by going unbeaten in earlier rounds of the postseason.

“Our team goal is to get to the (team) State Finals,” Hammel said. “We have a couple of strong matches to play, and hopefully we are ready for those challenges.”

VOLLEYBALL: BULL DOGS FACE UPCOMING CONFERENCE, SECTIONAL TESTS

The next two weeks ultimately will determine the legacy of the 2018 Columbus North volleyball team. Standing 8-14 overall and 2-0 in Conference Indiana, the Bull Dogs close the regular season with four matches this week, including three league matches. The schedule includes visiting CI-foe Bloomington South on Tuesday, traveling to Franklin for a non-conference match on Thursday and hosting both Terre Haute North and Terre Haute South in a pair of league contests on Saturday. The Bull Dogs could finish anywhere from first through fourth in the league.

The stakes are even higher the following week when CN competes in the Bloomington South Sectional. The Bull Dogs drew a first-round bye and will face either Columbus East (8-16) or East Central (23-2) at 11 a.m. Oct. 13. Bloomington North (9-14) and Shelbyville will meet in the other first-round match, with that winner facing host Bloomington South (16-9) in the second semifinal. The sectional championship match will be later Oct. 13.

The Bull Dogs enter this week after falling in nine of their last 12 matches. After beating Southport on Sept. 4 to move to 5-5, CN dropped matches to Franklin Central and Brownstown Central, went 1-3 in the New Albany Invitational, went 1-3 in the Muncie Central Invitational, beat Bedford North Lawrence and dropped a hard-fought 3-2 decision to Columbus East.

Junior Emma Tynan recorded 14 kills, two service aces and 10 digs in the setback to the Olympians. Senior Agustina Fainguersch added nine kills, four blocks and 10 digs and senior Lily Meyercord contributed 30 assists and nine digs.

COMING AT YOU: Junior Emma Tynan (14) puts the ball over the net during the Bull Dogs’ match against Southport.

Freshman Sarah Bennett tallied nine kills and three blocks, junior Gabby Gentt provided eight kills and senior Lauryn James had six kills and three blocks. In addition, senior Maddy Sebahar produced 30 digs. "We've been really working on mental toughness, staying calm and playing with confidence," CN coach Caitlin Greiner told The Republic after the East match. "In those tight (sets), it helped us and the girls didn't shy away from taking big swings."

Three outstanding Columbus High School alumni were inducted into the Bull Dog Alumni Association’s Alumni Hall of Fame on Sept. 21 as part of the 2018 homecoming festivities.

Sandy Hutton Carmichael, Dennis Unger and Victoria Long Toensing became the 27th, 28th and 29th inductees in the sixth annual ceremony in the commons area of Columbus North.

Carmichael, a 1967 graduate of Columbus High, became the first director of Hospice of South Central Indiana in 1980 and served in that role until 2013. She was a leader in promoting the hospice concept in the state and nationally. She has received many honors, including recognition at a White House event in 1991, a Sagamore of the Wabash award in 1992 and serving as a delegate to China in 1992 for a conference on terminal illness.

Unger, a 1959 graduate of Columbus High, worked in television and communications in a career spanning 40-plus year. He was a television cameraman in Indianapolis, Cleveland and Pittsburgh, a freelance cameraman for more than a decade and the technical director for White House Television from 2003-10. Over the years, he won multiple Peabody Awards and was part of teams that covered the Three-Mile Island incident, the Attica Prison riots and provided news documentaries to NBC and ABC.

Toensing, a 1958 graduate of Columbus High, has become a internationally known expert on the topics of white-collar crime, national security and intelligence matters. She attended Indiana University, received a law degree from the University of Detroit, worked as an assistant U.S. attorney in Michigan, served as chief counsel for a U.S. Senate committee, worked as a Deputy Assistant Attorney General and has represented government whistle blowers. She is a founding partner of diGenova & Toensing LLP, a law firm in Washington, D.C. She has been a regular guest on television on a variety of television news programs to discuss criminal justice, national security and terrorism.

Inductees are recognized for their professional achievements and personal contributions to enhance the lives of others and society. Inductees all attended Columbus High or Columbus North and have been graduates for a minimum of 20 years at time of nomination.

ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION
The BULL DOG BULLETIN is a publication of the Columbus North High School athletic department. It is to be produced 11 times over the 2018-19 school year to promote CNHS athletes and teams. Advertising is accepted. For information, contact the CNHS athletic office at 812-376-4265. More info on CN athletics at columbusnorthathletics.org.

SUCCESSFUL HABIT:
Top athletes train hard, often doing more than the minimum required. In addition to attending practices and games, they also practice at home and use additional resources to improve their skills. This dedication to excellence sets them apart from their peers and helps them achieve success.
