UNIFIED BASKETBALL A HIT IN MEMORIAL GYM
Columbus North squad faces Shelbyville, to play at Columbus East on Dec. 13

The crowd in Memorial Gym roared when a goal was scored during the unified basketball game last Friday between teams from Columbus North and Shelbyville.

Up and down the athletes and partner players ran, and several times the ball went through the hoop.

The score was not important, but the participation was, according to Columbus North senior Noah Algee, who along with classmate Chloe Day coordinated the event as their Senior Project.

“This is so good for our students with special needs,” Algee said. “It provides them an opportunity to do something in an atmosphere that they rarely get to be a part of. The whole crowd is cheering for them, and it is wonderful to see.”

Helping sponsor the CN team were Day Chiropractic, Enkei Corp., Estep & Company, German American Bank and Scott Wilson State Farm.

The Columbus North team will compete in another unified basketball game on Dec. 13 at Columbus East. This game will be held in conjunction with the Columbus North at Columbus East girls’ game.

Algee participated in unified track last spring, and that experience inspired him to take a bigger role in helping coordinate the unified basketball team.

“The relationships we built during unified track were so beneficial, that I decided that (helping with the unified basketball program) would be a good idea,” he said. “It is a very special environment for the athletes.”

Boys Basketball: Young Bull Dogs Show Good Potential in 3-1 Start

Good intensity, good shooting and unselfish play have produced a good start to the 2018-19 season for the Columbus North boys basketball team.

After a challenging opener where a young squad dropped a 58-53 decision at Heritage Christian, the Bull Dogs reeled off consecutive victories over Hauser (83-53), Shelbyville (82-76 in overtime) and Martinsville (68-51) for a 3-1 ledger.

The latter two decisions were particularly encouraging. CN rallied from a nine-point deficit late in the fourth quarter against the Golden Bears to force overtime, then surged in the extra session to pull out the victory. A day later, the Bull Dogs were sharp from start to finish in knocking off the Artesians.

Through four games, sophomore Blake Barker leads the team with a 19.8 scoring average. Junior Nicholas Schiavello is second with a 17.0 average followed by sophomore Reese Harmon at 11.5 and senior Trenton Kelley at 8.8. Rounding out the attack are senior Cameron Wischmeyer at 2.0 and senior Riley Ablès at 1.5.

“We knew that we would learn a lot about our team (against Shelbyville and Martinsville),” Columbus North coach Paul Ferguson told The Republic. “We are an inexperienced team with only two guys with a lot of varsity minutes coming back. But we also knew that we could get scoring from a lot of different areas if we were unselfish and shared the ball.”

The tests continue for the Bull Dogs throughout December. CN has several home games throughout the month, including Friday against Franklin Central, Saturday against Fishers, Dec. 14 against Columbus East and Dec. 21 against Terre Haute South.

The Bull Dogs conclude the month by competing Dec. 27-28 in the Noblesville Holiday Tournament. CN faces Andrean in the first round and will meet either Northridge or Noblesville in the second round. The Bull Dogs will see New Albany, Crown Point, Lawrence Central or Chesterton in the placement round.

“In practice, we always work on passing up the good shot for the great shot,” Harmon told The Republic. “We are a team that just wants to win. We don’t care who gets the points. We want to find the open man for the best shot.”

It's been an up-and-down season so far for the Columbus North girls basketball team. The Bull Dogs – 4-3 overall and 2-0 in Conference Indiana games – look to find improved consistency as they continue their season with a busy December.

Columbus North hosts Greenwood on Tuesday and East Central on Thursday in the coming week. CN followed by traveling to Seymour on Dec. 11, Columbus East on Dec. 13 and Indianapolis Attucks on Dec. 18. The Bull Dogs host Terre Haute North on Dec. 22, then host the seventh annual Subway/Columbus North Invitational on Dec. 27-28.

CN faces Evansville North in the first round. It will play either Mooresville or East Chicago Central in the second round. The placement-round opponent will be Center Grove, Elkhart Central, Martinsville or Zionsville.

Through seven games, senior Nadia Lomax averages a team-best 8.9 points plus 4.4 rebounds, 1.6 assists and 1.3 steals. Junior Annie Anderson adds 7.9 points, 4.4 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 1.6 steals. Sophomore Alexa McKinley contributes 7.6 points and 3.1 rebounds plus team highs of 2.9 assists and 2.4 steals.

Junior Sierra Norman has provided 7.4 points and 3.4 rebounds, while junior Tessa Lomax has tallied 6.3 points, 5.6 rebounds and 2.3 blocks. Freshman Kyah Lawson has notched 5.8 points, a team-best 6.9 rebounds, 1.3 assists, 2.3 steals and 1.3 blocks.

Columbus North opened its season with a 45-34 victory over New Albany but then dropped a 46-28 decision at Martinsville. The Bull Dogs bounced back to defeat Southport 59-45 and Franklin Central 75-45, but they lost 78-44 to Lawrence North and 50-46 to Heritage Christian.

CN defeated Terre Haute South 46-25 with its best defensive half of the season, holding the Braves to six points in the second half. The biggest thing that the Bull Dogs must do is reach game speed consistently in practice.

“Getting to game speed in practice doesn’t always happen,” Bull Dogs coach Pat McKee told The Republic after the New Albany game. “We do sometimes, but if we did it more consistently in practice, the we would finish better in a game setting.”

Junior Sami Heathcote, senior Tova Edwards and junior Alayne Davis are the top returning athletes for the 2019 Columbus North gymnastics team.

The Bull Dogs placed third in the 2018 IHSAA State Finals, and the team will be seeking its 13th consecutive finals appearance and the 23rd in program history.

But before the Columbus North can look at the end, it needs to take care of its daily details while preparing for the season that begins on Jan. 7 with a home dual meet against Columbus East. The team has seven dual meets before the Connersville Invitational on Feb. 9 and Conference Indiana meet on Feb. 12.

Columbus East will host the sectional on Feb. 22 and the regional on March 1. This season’s State Finals will be March 9 at Noblesville High School. WRESTLING: BULL DOGS SEEKING TO STEP FORWARD IN 2018-19 SEASON

Senior Bradley Gutierrez went 5-0 at 285 pounds on Dec. 1, highlighting the effort by the Columbus North wrestling team in the season-opening Bloomington Invitational at Bloomington North.

The 2018-19 season kicks into full swing this week with a home dual match on Wednesday against Edgewood and the annual Columbus North Invitational on Saturday. The Bull Dogs host Jennings County on Dec. 11, then compete in the East Central Super 8 on Dec. 15. They have another home dual against Madison on Dec. 19, take part in the Avon Invitational on Dec. 22 and participate in the Spartan Classic at Connersville on Dec. 28-29.

The 2019 portion of the schedule includes a dual at Seymour on Jan. 3, a dual at Columbus East on Jan. 9, the Conference Indiana meet at Bloomington North on Jan. 12 and a home dual with Bedford North Lawrence on Jan. 17.

In the opening meet in Bloomington, Gutierrez posted two pins and three decisions. Gutierrez pinned Lawrence North’s Steve Savage at the 5:41 mark of his first match. He claimed a fall over Martinsville’s Cole James at 0:48 of his last match. In between, Gutierrez notched a 4-1 decision over Bloomington South’s Conner Lucas, a 4-0 decision over Center Grove’s Musa Ogega and a 5-2 decision over Bloomington North’s Race Stewart.

As a team, the Bull Dogs went 0-5 in Bloomington. They dropped matches to Lawrence North 68-9, Bloomington South 70-9, Center Grove 72-9, Bloomington North 40-27 and Martinsville 48-28.

“The scores don’t show it, but our guys wrestled tough all day,” Columbus North coach Matt Joyce said. “With a few adjustments, a few of those duals start to go our way. I am excited about how our guys are responding even when things don’t go our way or when things don’t happen as they expected. They are controlling the things within their control with great attitudes and making progress every day.”

Junior Nick Holt was CN’s only other wrestler with a winning mark, going 3-2 at 170 pounds. Holt pinned Center Grove’s Jordan Latham at 2:00, won by forfeit against Bloomington North and pinned Martinsville’s Lucas Martin at 0:33.

Four Bull Dogs posted 2-3 records. They included senior Morgan Smith at 113 pounds, freshman Bryce Abner at 138 pounds, freshman Connor Essick at 145 pounds and sophomore Yadiel Reyes at 195 pounds.

This was the first signing ceremony for the 2018-19 academic year for athletes in the Class of 2019.

Both baseball players, Maddox is headed to Ohio University and Meyer is bound for the University of Evansville.

Maddox, a pitcher-outfielder, posted a 3-2 record with a 2.39 earned run average and 49 strikeouts in 41.0 innings while helping the Bull Dogs to an 18-10 record in the 2018 season. He also hit .242 with one double, one home run and 14 RBIs.

As a sophomore, Maddox went 3-4 with a 3.57 ERA and 56 strikeouts in 53.0 innings while helping Columbus North go 17-13 and claim sectional and regional championships. He hit .298 with four doubles, two triples, one home run and 15 RBIs that season and was chosen honorable mention all-Conference Indiana. As a freshman, Maddox recorded a 2-4 record with a 6.42 ERA and 17 strikeouts in 24.0 innings while helping the Bull Dogs to a 17-11 ledger.

Meyer, a pitcher, went 3-4 and was voted first-team all-Conference Indiana after posting a 1.85 ERA and 61 strikeouts in 49.1 innings last season. As a sophomore, he had a 3-2 record with a 7.00 ERA and 36 strikeouts in 27.0 innings. Later signing ceremonies tentatively are set for December, February, April and possibly May.
