CHILI SUPPER RAISES FUNDS FOR MCCAA

More than 40 volunteers put on a chili supper on Dec. 14 to raise funds to defray costs for Karen McCaa, a 1989 Columbus North graduate who is facing significant medical issues.

A group led by Amy Hammons and Karen Redding put on the event in the Columbus North cafeteria that raised just shy of $6,000 for McCaa, who has Addison’s disease, Lyme disease and has fought through numerous surgeries over the past eight years. It recently was recommended that she go to the Mayo Clinic in Minnesota for treatment.

McCaa was an Indiana All-Star in basketball and later played at Eastern Illinois University. For the past several years, she has served as a motivational coach for Columbus North football, girls basketball and baseball.

BULL DOGS’ TRAINER UP FOR NATIONAL HONOR

Columbus North’s Steve Souder has been named a regional nominee for the Newell Athletic Trainer of the Year Award for 2018-2019.

As a regional nominee, Souder advances to join other regional nominees from across the nation in competition for the national Newell Award, which will be announced in May.

The Newell Award recognizes athletic trainers for the service and leadership they provide to their local athletic communities through entities such as Southern Indiana Orthopedics. Based on examples of service, leadership and shared experiences from community members, nominees for the Newell Award are determined regionally.

More than 200 exceptional shared experiences from community members were received in support of Souder’s regional nomination.

“The outpouring of support from community members on Mr. Souder’s behalf has been tremendous and certainly well deserved,” said Dr. Eric Tannenbaum, a fellowship-trained sports medicine surgeon with Southern Indiana Orthopedics. “We feel honored to acknowledge his efforts by partnering with The Newell Award to recognize the region’s top athletic trainers for the service and leadership they display while treating our community’s athletes.”

As a certified athletic trainer at Columbus North, Souder works full time to keep student-athletes active and healthy. He is a former teacher and two-time recipient of the Indiana Athletic Trainers Association’s high school Athletic Trainer of the Year Award. He earned a bachelor’s degree from Bowling Green State University in Ohio and a master’s degree from Indiana University.

Souder has served as a local athletic trainer for more than 40 years, caring for injured athletes and educating future athletic trainers through his work.

Eleven games in and the Columbus North boys basketball team is doing well.

Fresh off a third-place finish in the Noblesville Holiday Invitational, the 7-4 Bull Dogs resume competition by visiting Terre Haute North at 7:30 p.m. Friday and traveling to Jennings County at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

A home game against Mooresville is set for Jan. 11 followed by a road game on Jan. 19 at Perry Meridian. The Bull Dogs close the month at home on Jan. 25 against Southport and on the road Jan. 26 at Whiteland.

CN coach Paul Ferguson was particularly pleased with the way his team played last Friday in its 64-61 victory over New Albany in the third-place game at Noblesville. That came after the Bull Dogs defeated Andrean 62-52 in the tournament opener and dropped a 48-45 decision to the host Millers.

“To be able to bounce back against a program like New Albany, to come out and play really, really well and finish a game by going 15-of-15 (on free throws), that’s what I am most proud about,” Ferguson told The Republic. “Credit to our guys making big free throws under pressure, especially in the fourth quarter when they had to foul.”

Junior Nicholas Schiavello scored 59 points over the three tournament games and was chosen to the all-tournament team. Sophomore Blake Barker added 53 points in the tournament, while sophomore Reese Harmon contributed 26 points and senior Trenton Kelley had 21 points.

Barker is averaging a team-best 20.0 points for the season – including 29 points in 64-62 setback to Columbus East, 26 points in a 77-41 triumph over Terre Haute South and 25 against New Albany. Schiavello chips in a 16.9 average, including 25 against New Albany and 23 in a 60-57 loss to Fishers. Harmon adds an 8.7 average, while Kelley adds 7.6 points and senior Patrick McKinley averages 3.5 points.

The Bull Dogs opened December by beating Martinsville 68-51 and followed by topping Franklin Central 62-54 in overtime. CN dropped consecutive games to Fishers and Columbus East, then rebounded to beat Terre Haute South before the three-game holiday tournament.

Schiavello said the New Albany result could set a tone for what is to come.

“It’s a big win and we played hard,” he told the newspaper. “It just shows the fight and grit that all our guys have. We never give up. We’re always going to play hard. I think we can really build off this and have a strong second half of the season.”

It was a December to remember for the Columbus North girls basketball team. Other than a hiccup against Mooresville in the semifinals of the Subway/Columbus North Invitational, the balanced Bull Dogs went 9-1 for the month to push their season record to 12-4.

The challenges continue in January with seven more games to conclude the regular season. CN starts by traveling to Jennings County on Thursday and to Perry Meridian on Saturday. The Bull Dogs visit Bloomington South on Jan. 12 for an important Conference Indiana game, then go to Franklin on Jan. 15 before their lone home game for the rest of the season – Jan. 18 against Bloomington North.

Columbus North faces Chicago St. Ignatius College Prep in the Kipp Hoopsfest on Jan. 21 at Willowbrook High School in Villa Park, Ill., then closes its regular season Jan. 24 at Roncalli. The sectional is set for Jan. 29-Feb. 2 at Columbus East, where the Bull Dogs will seek to return to the top of the field after falling short a year ago. CN has claimed the sectional championship in six of the past seven seasons.

In December, the Bull Dogs posted victories over Terre Haute South (46-25), Greenwood (59-29), East Central (40-35), Seymour (46-26), Columbus East (56-46), Indianapolis Attucks (54-26) and Terre Haute North (41-25) prior to hosting their seventh annual holiday tournament. In that event, CN defeated Evansville North 46-43, lost to Mooresville 56-49 and topped Martinsville 54-47. Sophomore Alexa McKinley was selected to the all-tournament team.

For the season, McKinley averages team highs of 9.8 points, 3.3 assists and 2.1 steals. Senior Nadia Lomax adds 8.6 points, 4.3 rebounds and 1.6 assists, while junior Sierra Norman contributes 8.3 points and 3.1 rebounds. Junior Annie Anderson provides 6.4 points, 3.3 rebounds, 1.9 assists and 1.5 steals. Junior Tessa Lomax averages 5.4 points and 5.7 rebounds, and freshman Kylah Lawson chips in 5.3 points and 5.7 rebounds.

“We’re generally quite pleased by how the team has played,” CN coach Pat McKee said. “We hope to take the good things we have done and continue them into the final third of the regular season. More importantly, we hope to use those games as a springboard into a successful postseason.”

It is “go” time for the Columbus North gymnastics team.

The Bull Dogs open their season at 7 p.m. Monday against rival Columbus East, then follow with a home meet on Jan. 10 against Bloomington North.

Junior Sami Heathcote, senior Tova Edwards and junior Alyane Davis are the top returnees for the 2019 squad. The Bull Dogs placed third in the 2018 IHSAA State Finals, and the team will be seeking its 13th consecutive finals appearance and the 23rd in program history.

Heathcote posted a season-best 37.750 in the all-around last season, while Edwards had a best of 35.300. Davis’ best was 34.150, while junior Ashley Niebrugge had a best of 33.600, junior Grace Ellis totaled a 32.100 and senior Emma Cooper notched a 30.000. Other returnees are junior Spandy Balanaga and senior Ragan Gaskill, while a group of freshmen includes Abbi Jacobi, Emily Moore, Madi Edwards and Elizabeth Richards.

Other meets in January include Jan. 15 against Owen Valley, Jan. 17 against New Palestine, Jan. 24 at Bloomington South and Jan. 29 at Seymour. CN hosts Roncalli on Feb. 5 and competes in the Connersville Invitational on Feb. 9. The squad completes its regular season by hosting the Conference Indiana meet on Feb. 12.

“It’s really too early to speculate how we’re going to fall into the pack until we start seeing some scores from throughout the state,” Columbus North co-coach Bob Arthur told The Republic. “I think we have the muscle, we have the manpower to make it (to state) and ideally be in the (top) four, but that’s the girls’ call, not mine. They’re going to have to be the ones who put that together.”

The team is looking to Tova Edwards to join Heathcote as a leader. Moore also has shown outstanding ability in club gymnastics.

“We would love to pick up where we left off last year,” CN co-coach Sandy Freshour told the newspaper. “A lot of it will depend on the junior class honing their skills and the leadership that Tova takes on. They’re doing really well in practice. There’s a lot of young talent.”

The Columbus North swimming teams return to action this week after more than three weeks in a training-only period. The Bull Frogs travel to Bloomington North for a dual meet on Thursday for the first competition since the Columbus North Relays on Dec. 8. It will be a busy month for the teams as they also will visit Franklin Central on Jan. 10, compete in the Conference Indiana meet at Indiana University on Jan. 19 and host Oldenburg Academy on Jan. 24. In addition, the CN divers will take part in the Bloomington North Diving Invitational on Jan. 5 and the Bull Frogs will host a JV invitational on Jan. 23.

"During our holiday training, the objective of improving each and every day has been our focus," Bull Frogs coach Logan Schaefer said. "Our goal has been to use the break period to improve and be a better team than when we started break."

The upcoming dual meets are stepping stones toward the multi-team meets, which include the Conference Indiana meet in January and the sectional and state meets for each gender in February.

"In our January meets, we are striving to continue to improve and build toward our championship meets," Schaefer said. "These final meets in January also allow us to put together our end-of-season championship rosters."

Through the December competition, senior Sam Russell has posted team season-best times in the 200-yard individual medley (1:59.09), 100 butterfly (53.57), 100 freestyle (49.43) and 100 breaststroke (59.55). Sophomore Christopher Lee has bests in the 500 free (5:03.43) and 100 backstroke (55.94), while senior Rafael Spear is tops in the 50 free (22.55) and junior Nick Green has the best in the 200 free (1:49.86). Sophomore Ryan Jiles has the best score in diving with 185.00 points.

For the relays, the quartet of Lee, Russell, senior Jared Carroll and Spear have a best of 1:39.39 in the 200 medley; Carroll, junior Ayush Panda, Spear and Green have a mark of 1:30.97 in the 200 free; and Carroll, Green, Lee and Russell have combined for a time of 3:19.44 in the 400 free.

Junior Betsy King paces the CN girls with bests in the 200 IM (2:17.96), 50 free (24.67), 100 fly (1:03.19) and 100 free (53.80). Junior Olivia Morlok leads the way in the 200 free (2:02.91) and 500 free (5:20.80). Sophomore Adeline Rush is best in the 100 back (1:04.63), junior Erica Samuel leads in the 100 breast (1:12.80) and sophomore Ella Anderson is tops in diving (1:38.05).

WRESTLING: REBUILDING BULL DOGS LOOKING FOR PROGRESS IN JANUARY

It is a season of rebuilding for the Columbus North wrestling team, but several athletes have done well.

As expected, seniors Morgan Smith and Bradley Gutierrez are team leaders. Smith has a 14-4 record in the 113-pound weight class, while Gutierrez is 10-2 at 285 pounds.

Others who have done well include sophomore Yadiel Reyes (10-6 at 195 pounds and 182 pounds), junior Adam Behling (9-7 at 220 pounds), freshman Bryce Abner (9-11 at 138 pounds), junior Nick Holt (8-8 at 170 pounds) and senior Dallin Anderson (7-10 at 152 pounds).

Also, freshman Jared Slocum is 6-6 at 160 pounds, freshman Josh Nelson is 5-3 at 106 pounds, sophomore Caleb Dooley is 3-2 at 285 pounds and sophomore Keegan Hill is 4-5 at 182 pounds.

As a team, the Bull Dogs have struggled to field a full lineup in most matches. Thus, the squad stands 2-21 in dual matches with three duals remaining – Thursday at Seymour, Jan. 9 at Columbus East and Jan. 17 at home against Bedford North Lawrence.

The Conference Indiana meet is Jan. 12 at Bloomington North, and the sectional is set for Jan. 26 at Jennings County. The regional is Feb. 2 at Jeffersonville, and the semi-state meet is Feb. 9 at the Ford Center in Evansville. The state meet is Feb. 15-16 at Bankers Life Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

Highlights during December include Smith going 4-1, Reyes going 3-1 and Anderson, Slocum and Holt each going 3-2 in the Columbus North Invitational.

Smith also went 5-0 to win the 113-pound division at the East Central Invitational, while Nelson, Abner, Hill, Behling and Gutierrez all went 3-2 in the Avon Invitational.

“Morgan has put in a lot of hard work, and it is showing,” CN coach Matt Joyce said at the conclusion of the East Central Invitational. “He is adjusting well to the 113-pound weight class. He wrestled tough all day.”

In the two-day Spartan Classic in Connersville, Behling and Dooley each went 3-2 as the Bull Dogs totaled 60 points as a team to place 27th of 32 schools. Abner, Anderson, Holt and Reyes each went 2-2 in Connersville. Smith was unable to compete at Connersville because of an injury.

What do Josh Speidel, Ali Patberg, Alex Turner, Mike Hladik and others have in common? They are among the all-time record-holders for Columbus High and Columbus North athletics. With this being the 150th anniversary year of Columbus High/Columbus North, the Bull Dog Alumni Association is in the process of producing a coffee table-style book that will include a section highlighting some of the outstanding athletes and sports teams from over the years.

Certainly, the 37 state championship teams in sports across the board will be spotlighted. So, too, will individual state champions and some of the game, season and career record holders such as Speidel (boys basketball career scoring with 1,512 points), Patberg (girls basketball career scoring leader with 2,026 points), Turner (football career rushing leader with 4,233 yards) and Hladik (football career passing leader with 5,519 yards).

Terry Trautman, a 1956 Columbus High graduate, is overseeing the collection of data for the athletic portion of the book. Others working on the project include Hedy George, Larry Ruble, Tami Stone Iorio and Janice Montgomery. In addition to athletics, there will be sections in the book on facilities, academics, student life, arts, faculty and staff, and the Alumni Hall of Fame.

Records for some sports are readily available. However, records in some sports such as baseball, softball and boys soccer have been challenging to find. So if anyone has a list of records or season stats that may have been distributed, it may be helpful if you could make a copy of that page and drop it by the Columbus North athletic office. Anything left at the office will be forwarded to those who try to keep track of these items for the athletic program and forwarded to Trautman, if it applies to the book project.

Those contributing to the book hope to have first drafts done for each section by Feb. 1. February itself is to be an editing and coordinating month, and the go-to-print deadline is projected to be April 1. The finished book is expected to be available in early May in conjunction with the American Pie performance on May 10 and the Bull Dog Gala Reunion on May 11.

Others working on the project include Hedy George, Larry Ruble, Tami Stone Iorio and Janice Montgomery. In addition to athletics, there will be sections in the book on facilities, academics, student life, arts, faculty and staff, and the Alumni Hall of Fame.

Records for some sports are readily available. However, records in some sports such as baseball, softball and boys soccer have been challenging to find. So if anyone has a list of records or season stats that may have been distributed, it may be helpful if you could make a copy of that page and drop it by the Columbus North athletic office. Anything left at the office will be forwarded to those who try to keep track of these items for the athletic program and forwarded to Trautman, if it applies to the book project.

Those contributing to the book hope to have first drafts done for each section by Feb. 1. February itself is to be an editing and coordinating month, and the go-to-print deadline is projected to be April 1. The finished book is expected to be available in early May in conjunction with the American Pie performance on May 10 and the Bull Dog Gala Reunion on May 11.

FOOTBALL: THREE BULL DOGS PICKED AP HONORABLE MENTION ALL-STATE

Three Columbus North football players were named Class 6A honorable mention all-state by The Associated Press, it was announced in late December. Senior quarterback Trenton Kelley, junior tight end Mitchel Collier and sophomore running back Blake Huffman collected accolades from the media outlet. Players are chosen regardless of year in school to this honor squad.

The 6-5, 205-pound Kelley passed for 1,772 yards and 16 touchdowns on 145-of-230 accuracy in leading the Bull Dogs to an 8-2 season that included the championship of Conference Indiana at 5-0. He threw for 358 yards against Bloomington South, the second-best game in CN annals, and moved his career yardage total to 4,017, the third best in CN history. Kelley also ran for 133 yards and three TDs.

The 6-2, 220-pound Collier was efficient as a blocker in helping the Bull Dogs’ offense that totaled 358.3 yards per game and 32.0 points per game. In the process, he caught 10 passes for 94 yards. Collier also doubled as a defensive end, totaling 44 tackles with two tackles for loss and three sacks.

The 5-8, 170-pound Huffman ran for 1,231 yards and 12 touchdowns on 224 carries. He also provided 28 receptions for 314 yards and three TDs. In addition, Huffman averaged 7.1 yards with a long of 22 yards on 15 punt returns.

All three players previously were voted first-team all-Conference Indiana. Collier and Huffman also were chosen first-team Class 6A Junior All-State by the Indiana Football Coaches Association in a separate award in late November.
